

We have the data.

Solutions for Process Servers

Locate hard to find people, faster and easier.

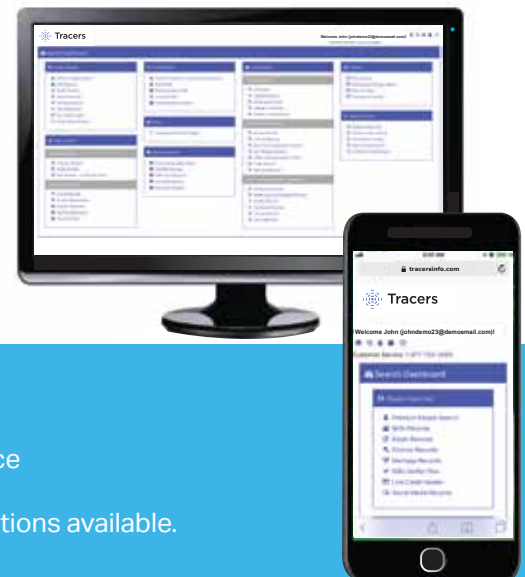

Process servers rely on Tracers' data solutions to find addresses and other frequent locations of persons that need to receive service of process. Tracers' advanced search logic quickly sorts through billions of records to instantly bring you powerful location data. As one of the leading providers of public and private-records information, Tracers' data covers nearly every adult in the U.S.

Immediate results.

Tracers skip-tracing and extensive data solutions piece together the latest and extensive information to help you find your subject, even when there is limited known information. Enter any details you have on an individual you're serving process and let Tracers' powerful search technology do the rest. Have confidence that you are accessing the most up-to-date and comprehensive information to track down your subject from your office or smartphone.

Data solutions include:

- Residential address
- Place of employment
- Social media searches
- Real-time incarceration records
- Criminal record & arrest searches
- Property searches
- Shared residence searches
- Vehicle registration searches
- Associates & relatives searches

Expert Customer Support

If you want help with your locate or skip tracing needs, our customer service team excels at what they do and wants to help with your success. Call or email when you need us. Affordable single and multi-seat pricing options available.

tracersinfo.com

Risk-free trial.
Give Tracers a try – on us!
Call us today (877) 592-8511